1. The North Bohemian Power Plants, National Corporation at Chomutov, employ about 60 workers in addition to an unspecified number of engineers, technicians and office employees. Leading personnel are:
 - a. Ing. Landa, manager; a Czech who probably became a Communist Party member after February 1948.
 - b. Adolf Duda, chairman of the workers' council. A Czech about 45 years old, he lives at Spalice. He is a fanatical Communist and is also chairman of the trade union (ROH) at the plant.
 - c. Koenig, vice-chairman of the Communist Party organization at the plant. He is a Czech, about 60 years old, and a fanatical Communist.
2. The power plant at Chomutov is actually an auxiliary plant of the power plant at Ervenice, and it supplies electric power to all industrial plants in Chomutov.
